A CHARGE OF PERJURY

Against a Detective Who Caused the Arrest of Murder Suspects. Wilkesbarre, Pa., Jan. 12.-John and Thomas Monahan, brothers, and their sister, Mary Monahan, arrested on the charge of being implicated in the murder of Michael Corcoran, the Duryes hotel keeper, were taken before Alderman Donohue yesterday afternoon for a hearing. A half score of witnesses were examined, and then the hearing was adjourned until today. The testimony submitted was rather weak. Last evening Detective Seldman, of Scranton, who was instrumental in making the arrests, was arrested for perjury on a warrant sworn out by David Williams. The detective is alleged to have stated that Williams made a confession to him, in which he | qua; Frank Reichelderfer to Sarah A. Reich implicated the Monahans in the murder. Williams says this is false. Seid man gave bail.

To this the following reply has been sent o the Deputy: 'DEAR SIR : From investigations and exeminations made by me on the 4th of Jan., 1890, relative to the death of Michael Brunzo. I find there is no biame statehed to any one for the cause of this accident, other than the man himself. I have printed forms from the state department which I will send you whenever I deem it necessary to hold an inquest in your district, and as the mine law prescribes. I therefore will not be accessory taking money out of the county treasury

"Yours very truly, "WILLIAM STEIN."

Inspector Stein went to Mahanoy City today to investigate the case of Frank Wertz, who was killed by a dumper at the North Mahanoy colliery yesterday morning. He will order an inquest, as possibly a question of defective apparatus will be involved as a imilar secident occurred at the same place about a year ago.

conchitis, asthma. Pottsville's Tax Duplicate.

From the Miners' Journal.

The tax duplicate of Pottsville for 1898 amounts to $147,000 and of this amount $123,000 has been paid to Tax Receiver Haeseler during the 60 days when the five per cent, discount is allowed. Only $34,000 per cent. account is anowed. Only $34,000 remains unpaid on the books. This is certainly a good showing. In fact it is a sign that money is plenty in this region, and the season of presperity has reached us.
